BRAND WHITLOCK.

Mr. Brand Whitlock, American minister to Brussels, may be an mateur in diplomacy, but he is an apert in common sense and comnon humanity.

It may have been none of his business to protest directly to the German authorities against the repping of bombs from airships upeven under siege; but it was somebody's business to represent the seniments of horror which that performance inspired. At the time he oid this. Mr. Whitlock had been desmatic concerns in Brussels. Instead to strengthen his position.
